

Outcome-blind division into OIS tertiles. The middle and highest tertiles do not differ in either population, so the main text divides at the median into two groups.