

A slope below 1 means OIS varies over a narrower range than the measured score. The pooled slope for the RBD and variant-carrier group (1.027) is not shown because it mixes two recruitment cohorts with different means. The within-recruitment cohort slopes are the interpretable values.